
THE BLESSED SACRAMENT WINDOW
THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION
Washington, D.C.

The Blessed Sacrament Window is in the west wall over the entrance to the future Blessed Sacrament Chapel. This window, a gift of The National Alliance of Czech Catholics consists of three brilliantly colored panels of orange and purple. The central figure is Christ, shown holding the chalice and a Host, vested as if for Mass. The left hand panel shows Our Lady receiving Communion from St. John. In the right hand panel the people of God are shown forming a ring around the Eucharistic Christ.
